Recovery Horoscope: Taurus April 21– May 21.

Your popularity is set to soar this March, as the Pisces Sun enchants your communal eleventh house until the 20th. Careful that you don't overbook your schedule, Taurus! Your Aries-ruled twelfth house of solitude, spirituality and healing is getting rocked by several planets in March, making this one of the most introspective times of 2025. If you need to tidy up anything, the March 14 Virgo full moon, an eye-opening lunar eclipse, delivers a loud wakeup call. Both Venus and Mercury will be retrograde in Aries—Venus from March 1 to 27 and Mercury from March 15 to 29—which could cause you to reassess the way you “do” relationships, friendships and romance in general. You're a giver, Taurus, and you expect a lot in return. Nothing wrong with that, but have your relationships grown too transactional? Release everyone from obligation and get back into a loving flow.
